ANNUAL REPORT

2015

Our Mission

Can Do Canines is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for people with disabilities by creating mutually beneficial partnerships with specially trained dogs.

Our Vision

We envision a future in which every person who needs and wants an assistance dog can have one.

“WE ARE MOST GRATEFUL FOR YOUR SUPPORT.”

FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR & BOARD CHAIR

Dear Friends,

In this report it is our pleasure to provide you with highlights of the accomplishments achieved by Can Do Canines during 2015. We are grateful for the tireless work of the many dedicated volunteers and hardworking staff who contributed to this important year. Your contribution to this effort, whether it was financial, volunteer, or both, moved our mission forward as we strive to provide more high-quality assistance dogs in the community.

We capitalized on opportunities in 2015. We added three new staff this year, moved wages to a more competitive level with other nonprofit organizations and set the stage to add a fifth prison puppy program in 2016, all in preparation to increase the number of dogs trained. Our waiting list remained over 160 applicants, but we certified 46 new assistance dog teams during 2015, 35% more than in 2014 and a new record for the organization!

Volunteers remain the life-blood of Can Do Canines. Puppy Raisers and Foster Homes are the key to readying our young pups for their future jobs as assistance dogs. Amazingly, 738 volunteers contributed 343,956 hours of service during 2015.

At year-end, we had certified a total of 523 assistance dog teams since our start in 1989.

Generous gifts from individual contributors continue to be the most important source of support for our work. Your generosity is what makes it possible to continue to provide these specially trained dogs, free of charge. We are most grateful for your support.

We approach 2016 with a great deal of enthusiasm for the opportunities before us. We are fully staffed, with volunteer and prison partners fully engaged. Counting on your support, we have set our sites on an ambitious goal: to increase the number of new, certified assistance dog teams to 51 in 2016.

Your involvement with Can Do Canines gives life to our mission and gives meaning to our work. Thank you for joining us in this important endeavor.

MARILYN CHAZIN-CALDIE & MOBILITY ASSIST DOG CHECKERS

Marilyn Chazin-Caldie doesn't want to be slowed down. A retired statistician, she lives in Medina, Minn. with her husband Patrick. Despite being diagnosed with multiple sclerosis and Behcet's disease—both of which have caused the inability to walk—she remains active and pursues her interests.

"I am involved in pottery and photography classes," Marilyn says. "I like to take 'walks' and take photographs at zoos, arboretums, museums—oftentimes alone."

While she does her best to stay independent, multiple sclerosis has taken its toll. Marilyn uses a wheelchair to get around and suffers from daily back and leg pain. She finds herself tiring easily from activity and—as MS is a progressive disease—she has increasing difficulty using her arms.

One day, Marilyn was talking with a woman at the Courage Kenny Rehabilitation Institute who had an assistance dog. Marilyn learned that the woman's dog was trained to help overcome many of the same obstacles she was facing. Tuned into the idea of assistance dogs, she started to notice a lot of "red vests" around. That's when she applied to Can Do Canines for help.

Meanwhile, a two-year-old black Labrador retriever named Checkers was working his way through the training program.

"We nicknamed him Mr. Checkers," wrote one of his Foster Home volunteers. "When Checkers is dressed in his cape and Halti, he is such a different puppy. It's like he has a tuxedo on. He walks proud, and prances like he's walking on air. We are sure he will make an excellent assistance dog."

Checkers has fully lived up to his reputation. Partnered with Marilyn as a Mobility Assist Dog, he helps Marilyn regain some of the independence she has lost due to MS. The Lab excels at retrieving items that Marilyn drops. From silverware to laundry, Checkers can fetch it all with a happy wag of his tail. Extra helpful, says Marilyn, is that Checkers has been trained to bring her the telephone when she needs it.

"He's really cute, because he latches on to it with his mouth—usually dialing someone while he brings it to me," she says.

As Marilyn can become easily fatigued from activity, anything Checkers helps with is greatly appreciated. She fully realizes Checkers' value through all the energy she saves from everyday tasks.

"In the mornings, I can say, 'Checkers, go and get the paper!' And he'll run and get the newspaper for me. He's a devoted puppy."

Marilyn is grateful not only for the hard work of the trainers and Puppy Raisers, but to everyone for their contribution in raising her assistance dog.

"I read through all of the notes about Checkers and everyone wrote, 'whoever gets this dog is going to be a very lucky person,'" Marilyn says. "And I feel like the luckiest person in the world. I really do."

JULIE SCHNEIDER & HEARING ASSIST DOG SHIYA

“WITH HELP FROM
CAN DO CANINES,
SHIYA HAS CHANGED MY LIFE.”

Due to a hereditary condition, Julie Schneider of Arden Hills, Minn. started losing her hearing in her 20s. Her condition deteriorated over time and she became unaware of the sounds and noises around her.

In 2003 Julie got help from her first Can Do Canines Hearing Assist Dog, Sandy—a Cocker-Papillon mix. The hearing helper alerted her to all the sounds she had been missing and Julie was feeling reconnected to the world again. But when Sandy died of cancer in 2011, Julie’s problems reappeared.

A chance encounter with a dog breeder led her to adopt Shiya, a four-month-old American Eskimo. The two had an immediate connection, and from the start Shiya was beginning to alert Julie to sounds. But the little pup had some kinks and quirks that needed to be worked out. That’s when Julie reached out to Can Do Canines for help.

Bred to be a herding dog, Shiya could be timid and shy toward strangers. Can Do Canines worked with Julie to make Shiya more comfortable approaching people. Gradually, she overcame her fear.

Shiya also had a problem with pulling while on leash in public. Can Do Canines worked to overcome this issue through various training techniques and a special harness. “It took a lot of work and determination,” remembers Julie. “I almost gave up.”

But the two persevered, and now Shiya consistently alerts Julie to everyday sounds most of us take for granted. Alarm clocks, oven timers, door knocks, fire alarms, running water and Julie’s name being called all fall under Shiya’s repertoire.

“I’ve been extremely pleased and blessed—Shiya just sort of fell into my lap,” Julie says. “With help from Can Do Canines, Shiya has changed my life.”

Holly Arnold-Rains of St. Anthony, Minn. has a complicated history of stroke and seizures. Her main problem is balance, but she also has trouble grasping items, because one wrist was badly damaged in a fall.

"I realized that I was calling on my kids more and more for help," Holly says. "To keep my independence and be able to stay in my home, I knew I couldn't keep depending on them."

Holly's physical therapist thought an assistance dog from Can Do Canines could help. She applied, and was matched with Link, a two-year-old black Labrador Retriever. Today, when Holly drops items, Link is there to pick them up—no family assistance required. Link frees up her energy by opening doors, retrieving the phone, and even lending a paw with the laundry.

"Link is so attentive to my needs," Holly says. "He just knows—he has an instinct. If I drop something, even when I didn't know that I did it, he'll surprise me by bringing it right to me."

Holly's seizures can come at any time, so she needs Link to get her medication, and keep her Vagus Nerve Stimulation magnet handy. Holly uses this special magnet to trigger an implanted device near her neck, which delivers a burst of stimulation that can help stop her seizure before it occurs. If a seizure does occur, Link makes sure she recovers quickly by licking her hands and face, re-acclimating her to her surroundings.

"It's wonderful to have him lay there and be with me," Holly says. "I worked as a caretaker for many years, so I'm honored to finally have someone taking care of me."

To all the volunteers and donors who made the partnership possible, Holly says, "I'm able to live independently and Link and I can be a team. I'm so appreciative."

CYNDY FRERICHS & DIABETES ASSIST DOG JAGGER

ASSISTANCE DOG.”

Cyndy Frerichs, of Edina, Minn., is not new to the world of diabetes. Diagnosed at age 13, she has lived with Type 1 diabetes for 47 years. But only recently has it worsened to a dangerous stage.

Cyndy has developed hypoglycemia unawareness, which means she cannot feel the usual symptoms of low blood sugar. Her symptoms led to ten hospital visits in one year. Sometimes paramedics were called because she was unconscious and having convulsions.

“The unawareness of my low blood sugars became scary and life-threatening,” she says. “I feel like I have a guardian angel, because there were a number of times that I wouldn’t have made it.”

Realizing she needed additional help, she applied to Can Do Canines and was teamed with a Diabetes Assist Dog named Jagger. By monitoring Cyndy’s breath, the black Labrador Retriever is trained to alert her when her blood sugars are low and let her know it’s time to test.

“He’s very persistent,” says Cyndy. “He does not stop. If I don’t respond, he’ll nudge me. If I’m sitting, he’ll put his paws up on me. If I still don’t respond, he will bark.”

This has led to an improvement in Cyndy’s health. The number of emergency hospital visits since Jagger entered her life has dwindled down to zero. Jagger has even begun to alert Cyndy to high blood sugar levels, something Can Do Canines hadn’t trained him to do.

Cyndy has a special thanks for those donors who made Jagger’s training possible and wishes they could see the fruits of their generosity in action.

“It’s such a gift for everyone who gets an assistance dog,” Cyndy says. “I just wish that some of the people who donate could come and hang out with us and see how fabulous it is and how life-changing it is.”

Riley Gallo lives in Ramsey, Minn. with his mother Cathy and an extended family of five. While his actual diagnosis is more than 80 pages long, Riley's primary disabilities include a variety of pervasive developmental disorders, such as autism. Despite enrolling Riley in years of physical, speech and behavioral therapy, he was still having issues sleeping, bolting in public, and relating to his peers. After the family's doctor suggested an assistance dog, Cathy applied to Can Do Canines.

Enter Nolan, a four-year-old black Labrador Retriever. In no time this calm, attentive Autism Assist Dog has had a profound effect on the Gallo family. To start with, Riley's social skills have improved. In the past Riley had difficulty talking to new people. But now Nolan acts as a social bridge and Riley feels comfortable first talking about his dog and then moving on to other subjects.

There is also a marked difference in Riley's sleep difficulties. If he wakes up in the night, he will call Nolan for comfort instead of waking his mom. Cathy says that middle of the night wakeup calls used to happen six to eight times a night. Since Nolan joined the family, Riley hasn't woken her up once.

When he does begin to feel anxious or overstimulated, Riley cuddles with Nolan and is able to calm himself down. Cathy describes it as a "cocoon of security" for Riley. She is grateful that Nolan can create that feeling.

"It's different," Cathy says. "The stress level is still there, the anxiety is still there, but with Nolan, Riley just has a better way of calming himself down—of dealing with it—than he did before."

Since Nolan has come into their lives, the Gallos report that Riley is calmer, happier and even healthier. "Nolan is not only a blessing," Cathy says, "but he is Riley's best friend."

2015 VOLUNTEERS AND PUPPY RAISERS

Volunteers are a vital asset to completing our mission at Can Do Canines. Their commitment and enthusiasm are unparalleled. Puppy Raisers give a good dog a great home and provide the stimulation, guidance and education necessary to prepare the puppy for its future as an assistance dog. We could not provide this vital service without them. Puppy Raisers are noted with a  beside their name

LEGACY CLUB

The Legacy Club honors two groups of generous individuals: those who, while living, inform Can Do Canines of their intentions to include us in their will or planned giving device, and those who have passed on (indicated with a D) and already made bequests to further our work. We are grateful for their faith in Can Do Canines.

CAN DO CANINES DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Can Do Canines is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. We have developed this privacy policy to ensure our donors that donor information will not be shared with any third party. Can Do Canines provides this Donor Privacy Policy to make you aware of our privacy policy, and to inform you of the way your information is used. We also provide you with the opportunity to remove your name from our mailing list, if you desire to do so.

We collect and maintain the following types of donor information:

- contact information: name, organization, complete address, phone number, email address;
- payment information: credit card number and expiration date, and billing information;
- requests to receive periodic updates: e.g., to individuals who request it, we will send periodic mailings and/or e-mails related to Can Do Canines events, newsletters, and general or specific fund-raising events or appeals.

Can Do Canines uses your information to complete a transaction, communicate back to you, and update you on organization happenings. Credit card numbers are used only for donation or payment processing and are not retained for other purposes. Can Do Canines will not sell, rent, or lease your personal information to other organizations. We assure you that the identity of all our donors will be kept confidential. Use of donor information will be limited to the internal purposes of Can Do Canines. It is our desire to not send unwanted mail to our donors. Please contact us if you wish to be removed from our mailing list or e-mail communications.

If you have comments or questions about our donor privacy policy, please send us an email at info@can-do-canines.org or call us at 763-331-3000.

YOUR SUPPORT OPENS DOORS

Knox opens the door with a slight tug of the rope, but he also opens the door to increased freedom and independence for his partner. You open doors too, with your gift to Can Do Canines.
